

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

THE OAKS OF COUNTRY CLUB CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC.

The undersigned, by these Articles of Incorporation, hereinafter referred to as the Articles, associates himself for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit under Florida Statutes Chapter 617 (1984).

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the corporation shall be THE OAKS OF COUNTRY CLUB CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC. For convenience, the corporation shall be referred to in this instrument as the Association.

ARTICLE II

Purpose

The purpose for which the Association is organized is to provide the entity required for residential condominiums by the Florida Condominium Act, Chapter 718, Florida Statutes, (the Condominium Act hereinafter) for the operation of THE OAKS OF COUNTRY CLUB, A CONDOMINIUM, hereinafter referred to as the Condominium.

ARTICLE III

Powers

The powers of the Association shall include and be governed by the following provisions:

Section 1. The Association shall have all of the common-law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit not in conflict with the terms of these Articles.

Section 2. The Association shall have all of the powers and duties set forth in the Condominium Act, except as clarified by these Articles and the Declaration of Condominium for THE OAKS OF COUNTRY CLUB, A CONDOMINIUM, hereinafter referred to as the Declaration, and all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the Condominium pursuant to its Declaration as such may be amended from time to time, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. To make and collect assessments against members to defray the costs, expenses and losses of the Condominium.

b. To use the proceeds of assessments in the exercise of its powers and duties.

c. To maintain, repair and replace the Condominium property. This also includes the irrevocable right of access to each unit during reasonable hours when necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any common element, or at any time for making emergency repairs necessary to prevent damage to the common elements or to another unit.

d. To purchase insurance upon the Condominium property and insurance for the protection of the Association and its members.

e. To reconstruct improvements after casualty and to further improve the property.

f. To make and amend reasonable regulations respecting the use of the property in the Condominium.

g. To enforce by legal means the provisions of the Condominium Act, the Declaration, these Articles, the Bylaws of the Association, hereinafter referred to as the Bylaws, and the regulations adopted by the Association for the use of the property in the Condominium.

h. To contract for the management and maintenance of the Condominium and to authorize a management agent to assist the Association in carrying out its powers and duties by performing such functions as the submission of proposals, collection of assessments, preparation of records, enforcement of rules and maintenance, repair and replacement of the common elements with funds as shall be made available by the Association for such purposes. Provided, however, that the Association and its officers shall retain at all times the powers and duties granted by the condominium documents and the Condominium Act, including, but not limited to, the making of assessments, promulgation of rules and execution of contracts on behalf of the Association.

i. To employ attorneys, accountants and other personnel, both professional and non-professional, to perform the services required for proper operation of the Condominium.

j. To acquire by purchase, or otherwise, condominium parcels of the Condominium.

k. To approve or disapprove the leasing or transfer of units as may be provided by the Declaration or the Bylaws.

Section 3. All funds and the titles of all properties acquired by the Association shall be held in trust for the members of the Association in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration, these Articles and the Bylaws.

ARTICLE IV

Members

Section 1. Every person or entity owning a unit in the condominium is a member of the Association; membership in the Association ceases when a member's title to a unit is conveyed.

Section 2. The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to his unit.

Section 3. The owner, or owners, collectively, of each unit shall be entitled to one (1) vote. The manner of exercising voting rights shall be determined by the Bylaws.

ARTICLE V

Directors

Section 1. The affairs of the Association will be managed by a board consisting of the number of directors determined by the Bylaws, but not less than three (3) directors. Directors must, other than those appointed by the Developer, be members of the Association.

Section 2. Directors of the Association shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members in the manner determined by the Bylaws. Directors may be removed and vacancies on the board of directors shall be filled in the manner provided by the Bylaws.

Section 3. The names and addresses of the three members of the first board of directors, who shall hold office until their successors are elected and have qualified, or until removed, are as follows:

and court costs (Expenses) as Expenses are incurred by Indemnitees in Proceedings. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Association will not indemnify Indemnitees for any liability or expenses for actions which constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct, as such terms are used in Section 607.014(6) of the Florida Statutes, except where such actions are undertaken at the request of the Association. The indemnification provided in this Article shall be in addition to and shall not limit or modify any other rights to indemnity to which Indemnitees are entitled, including, without limitation, those conferred by the Florida Statutes or the Bylaws, Articles or any agreement executed by the Association.

ARTICLE IX

Bylaws

The Bylaws shall be made, altered or rescinded by a majority of the board of directors or by unit owners representing a majority of the units in the Condominium.

ARTICLE X

Amendments

Amendments to the Articles, not inconsistent with the Condominium Act or the Declaration, may be proposed by the board of directors or the members of the Association, and may be adopted by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the unit owners at a regular or special meeting called and noticed in accordance with the Bylaws, or as evidenced by a written consent executed by such number of unit owners.
